WELCOME

At 2:00am the alarm clock would scream at me to get up. By 2:30am, I was out my front door and headed four hours to Candler School of Theology. I had to be in class by 8:00am that morning and would not finish until 9:00pm that night. Then I would journey four hours back to my house that night to serve the church I was appointed to the next day.

The journey to ordination in the United Methodist Church has taken me nine years. This is typical of most people seeking ordination in the United Methodist Church. A person must have a Bachelor’s Degree, a Masters of Divinity, and spend two years as a Provisional Elder just to be ordained in the United Methodist Church. Many people chose to attend college and seminary while serving as a pastor in a local church. For me, it was truly a blessing to serve the church and attend Candler at the same time.

Most people do not realize how arduous the journey is just to be ordained. First, I had to meet with a mentor for a year just to begin the process. Once that process was over, my home church, Covenant United Methodist Church, had to recommend me to be a certified candidate for ministry in the UMC. My next step was to attend Local Licensed Pastor School. By being licensed as a Pastor, I could serve a church and attend seminary at the same time. For three years, I traveled to Candler School of Theology at Emory University four hours one way. I put over 80,000 miles on my car commuting back and forth. During my final semester at Candler, I had to prepare paperwork for Board of Ordained Ministry. This paperwork included many different assignments. One of the assignments was to answer doctrinal and theological questions. All in all, the paperwork was about 150 pages. I went in front of the board and they approved me to be commissioned a Provisional Elder. This past fall, I submitted paperwork of 150 pages again to the Board of Ordained Ministry and went before the board one more time in February of this year. I was approved for ordination. On Monday, June 5, 2017, the Bishop laid his hands on me and ordained me an Elder in United Methodist Church.

I am so grateful for all the people who invested in me over the last nine years. I thank God for this church and you all. I am proud to be an Elder serving the best church in the whole UMC.

Thanks be to God!

Conference in Review

The 2017 Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference was held June 4-7 in Montgomery, AL, with the theme, “Imagine: By Faith It Can Happen.” Bishop David Graves, presiding over his first annual conference session since becoming the resident bishop, welcomed clergy and lay members to Frazer Memorial UMC in Montgomery.

A capacity crowd attended the Opening Worship Service on Sunday evening, June 4. The service began with an uplifting reading of the Pentecost Story in six languages from lay and clergy representing various areas of the conference. A mass choir from around the conference, and led by Wayne Sigler of Frazer, provided inspiring music for the service. Bishop David Graves was introduced by Alexis Tibbetts, Chair of the Episcopacy Committee. Rev. Robin Wilson, Senior Pastor of Dauphin Way UMC, preached the sermon based on Ephesians 3:7-21 entitled, “More Than We Imagine.”

The Alabama-West Florida Local Mission Agencies were the beneficiaries of the 2017 missional offering. The agencies benefiting from this collection are The Ark, Dumas Wesley Community Center, Mary Ellen's Hearth, Milk and Honey Outreach Ministries, United Methodist Inner City Mission in Mobile, and Pensacola United Methodist Community Ministries. A total of $46,022 was collected this evening.

Thirty clergy and clergy spouses who passed since the 2016 AWF Annual Conference session were remembered Monday during the Service of Remembrance and Holy Communion. Bishop David Graves offered the opening prayer and Rev. Ralph Sigler, Founder and Leader Pastor of Harvest Church UMC, delivered the inspiring and uplifting sermon entitled, “Things Above” based on Colossians 3:1-4 and Ephesians 3:20-21. Surviving family members were hosted at a special luncheon by the AWF Commission on Archives and History.

The Service of Commissioning and Ordination was held Monday evening in the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church in Montgomery. The congregation represented family members and special friends of those being commissioned and ordained. The service included the commissioning of one provisional deacon and five provisional elders and the ordination of two deacons in full connection and six elders in full connection. Bishop David Graves preached a sermon entitled, “Be All That God Called You to Be,” based on Matthew 28: 18-20.

Twenty-one clergy were recognized upon their retirement by Rev. Kathy Knight. Together, the retiring clergy have 617 years of service in our conference. Bishop Graves gave a heartfelt prayer honoring this group in a new season of life. Rev. Libba Stinson spoke on behalf of the retiring class. Back by popular demand was the “passing of the torch.” Stinson presented a stole to Rev. Woods Lisenby, who was ordained as an elder in full connection Monday evening, signifying new leadership in the conference.

Bishop David Graves delivered his Episcopal address to the body of the conference. Before he preached, he took intentional time to diligently thank those who were an integral part of annual conference. Graves conveyed to the conference how valued this team is to him and how blessed we are to have this leadership. His powerful sermon was entitled, “Too Hard” based on Exodus 14:10-13. Graves walked through various scenarios that seemed impossible but through imagining faith, they occurred. He spoke of racial and gender barriers that have divided our church and made a public apology to people of color and women who have been victims of discrimination. An emotional standing ovation was given after these statements.

The conference was honored by the outstanding leadership of several guests. Claire Bowen and Dr. Victor Dingus led two teaching sessions. We welcomed President Cam West from Huntingdon College and Lane Estes from Birmingham-Southern College, as well as Blake Horne, director of the United Methodist Children’s Home. Patricia Barnes (Sister Schubert) gave the Mary Ellen Bullard Leadership Address at this year’s laity banquet.

New to the 2017 Annual Conference was the addition of morning worship services on Monday through Wednesday. These worship services, under the direction of Rev. Jay Cooper of Bay Minette UMC, incorporated people from around the conference. A special emphasis was made to involve people representing the various stages of ministry, which included seminary students, local pastors, deacons, elders, laity, clergy spouses and conference staff. Also new to conference was the availability of translating devices for Hispanic clergy and lay during business sessions.

On Monday, June 5th the Service of Commissioning and Ordination for the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church was held in the Main Sanctuary of First United Methodist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. The congregation represented family members and special friends of those being commissioned and ordained. Prior to the start of the service, the cathedral choir of Montgomery FUMC presented worshipful music led by Dr. James Seay. The service included the commissioning of one provisional deacon and five provisional elders and the ordination of two deacons in full connection and six elders in full connection. Bishop David Graves preached a sermon entitled, “Be All That God Called You to Be,” based on Matthew 28: 18-20. He asked those being commissioned and ordained to remember where they came from and challenged them to be all God called them to be by doing several things. He explained to first, stay in love with Jesus—ministry is best accomplished when you do it as a team and said, “Surround yourself with people who are better than you.” Next, learn to be a great communicator and listening is crucial to that. Discipline yourself so that no one else has to do so. Don’t just work hard when you need to, work smart. Graves stated, ”Success is having the right person in the right place at the right time. When you need help, ask for it.” Change is a must. Finally, handle success like you handle failure citing you can’t control what happens but you can control how you handle it. A special offering was collected for the Ministerial Education Fund.
