SPRING IN THE CHURCH

Dear Friends,

Every year, spring arrives as a kind of quiet resurrection. What looked bare begins to bloom. What seemed dormant stirs again. The light changes. The air softens. The world comes alive. So it is with Easter.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is not only a truth we proclaim. It is a life we are invited to enter. Easter is God's great springtime. In the risen Christ, new and abundant life breaks into the world again. Hope rises. Joy returns. Love takes flesh. The church comes alive.

That is why the people of God do not celebrate Easter for only one Sunday. We keep the Great Fifty Days because resurrection is too full, too beautiful, too life-giving to rush past. We need time to rejoice, time to worship, and time to let the life of the risen Jesus take root in us.

One of the things I love most about our Easter tradition at First Church is the flowering of the cross. On Good Friday, the cross is draped in black. It stands before us as a sign of sorrow, suffering, and death. But then on Easter, we cover that same cross with flowers from our own yards. We cover the cross with signs of new life. It is one of the most beautiful things we do. It is simple, local, and deeply true to the gospel. God does not deny the pain of the cross. God transforms it. What was marked by death becomes a witness to resurrection.

And what a joyful season lies before us. On Easter Sunday, April 5, we will gather to sing and pray and celebrate the victory of Christ over sin and death. In the weeks that follow, through our Easter services, Confirmation, and the reception of many new members, we will rejoice in the new life God is bringing forth among us. On Mother's Day, May 10, we will give thanks for the women whose love has helped give us life and shape our faith. And on Pentecost Sunday, May 24, we will celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit, poured out fresh upon the church for mission and witness.

This is what Easter looks like: not only an empty tomb, but a living church.

This season is an invitation to all of us. Come and worship. Come and be renewed. Come and give thanks. Come and welcome others. Come and receive again the new and abundant life that Jesus Christ gives. If the world around us is showing signs of spring, how much more should the church of the risen Lord be filled with life?

May these Great Fifty Days be a true springtime in the life of our church. May what has been hidden begin to bloom. May weary hearts be renewed. May those searching for hope find it here. May those who are new find a home. And may the risen life of Jesus Christ fill this church with joy, courage, and love.

Practice Resurrection,

Geoffrey

Senior Pastor

NEW ICON SERMON SERIES: AN UNHINDERED GOSPEL

Sundays, April 12 - May 24

Join us on Sunday this Easter season for our new ICON sermon series, "An Unhindered Gospel," as we explore the Greek concept of akōlytōs—a Gospel that refuses to be stopped by human barriers or institutional gatekeeping. Together, we will discover how the Spirit empowers every person regardless of their starting point, dismantling the idea of the "stranger" to incorporate everyone into a vital, living community. Guided by the Liturgy of Spirit and Flame, we will witness the Holy Spirit's push for a wider circle of covenant that fully affirms and includes every person. And yes, that means you too.

THE GREAT FIFTY 50 DAY CHALLENGE

First Church is answering the call and taking the challenge again this year! We are asking all of our members to invite people to church during the season of Easter and to help welcome fifty new people into the life of our church.
